

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, March 7, 1908, with transcript

Letter from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. Twin Oaks, Washington, D. C. (Sunday, March 7, 1908) My dear Alec:

I am having a good time here, and hope that you are happy. I came out here yesterday afternoon, it was a lovely day and I went out both morning and afternoon. I have been out driving all this morning , and walking this afternoon, so you see I am getting on finely and two nurses seem more than ever foolish.

I haven't anything to say except that I love you and miss you, but don't want you to come back until you have had as much kite flying as you want. My love to all the boys, and take care of yourself.

Your, Mabel. Sunday, March 7, 1908.
